

INVITATION

Social & Legal Studies: An International Journal

25th Anniversary Celebration

Friday 15th September 2017

Seminar and Reflections, 3 pm – 6 pm

Drinks and Buffet Dinner, from 6 pm

This year marks twenty five years since the launch of Social & Legal Studies. To mark its quarter century, the sixth issue of the 2017 volume will present a series of specially commissioned articles which review many of the fields of scholarship to which Social & Legal Studies has made a major contribution since 1992. In conjunction with this anniversary special issue, the Editorial Board invites you to a celebration to mark the Journal's success.

The event begins with a retrospective seminar of reflections on socio-legal studies, politics and the academy, the changes and continuities within legal discourse in the past quarter century and, of course, the evolution of Social & Legal Studies itself. The Editorial Board is delighted to welcome Professor Carol Smart, one of the Journal's founding editors; as well as contributors to the special issue, Professors Susan Boyd, Debra Parkes, Jon Goldberg-Hiller, Sol Picciotto, Dave Campbell, Ambreena Manji, John Harrington, Costas Douzinas, Alan Norrie and Dr Henrique Carvalho.

This will be followed by drinks and a buffet dinner to which all friends of Social & Legal Studies are invited.

The City Law School, City, University of London, is proud to host this occasion and offers its congratulations to Social & Legal Studies on a distinguished quarter century of critically engaged scholarship.

Further details on registration will be available this summer on city.ac.uk or by emailing events@city.ac.uk

-----