QUB School of Law's Human Rights Centre Postgraduate Conference

Friday 16 June 2017

Streams

- The role of business in human rights
- The role of business in health

The organisers also welcome abstracts that encompass business, health, and human rights law.

Postgraduate participants at this year's conference are invited to make a short presentation on their research, which is followed with the opportunity to engage in conversation with specialist academics.

The deadline for abstracts of approximately 300 words is 3 April 2017

Submissions should be sent to this year's Postgraduate Conference Coordinators who would be very happy to discuss submissions informally.
