

CALL FOR PAPERS

If you are interested in delivering a paper, please submit your abstract by midnight on 10th July.

Papers should be planned to last no longer than 20 minutes with 10 minutes for questions.

All abstracts should be a maximum of 300 words and must be submitted to:
registrar@civilmediation.org

For informal enquiries please email:
s.j.prince@exeter.ac.uk

WOBURN HOUSE
Tavistock Square
Kings Cross,
London WC1H 9HU

9am – 5pm

To be followed by a sponsored drinks reception

13TH OCTOBER 2017

COMPULSORY MEDIATION IN THE CIVIL COURTS: OPPORTUNITY OR THREAT?

An event of the Academic Committee of the Civil Mediation Council

We would welcome papers on any aspect of the above topic to inform wider policy and discussion of the role of mediation in the civil court process. This Conference takes place against a background of the modernising of court processes and the introduction of the online court.

The Keynote Address will be provided by Sir Ernest Ryder, Lord Justice of Appeal and Senior President of Tribunals.

Booking details follow shortly.

