Special Issue on Investor State Dispute Settlement

Call for Papers

The MJIEL invites contributions for a special issue to be published in September 2018 on the theme 'ISDS in the era of instability'. Instability is used to describe wholesale regulatory changes brought about by the Trump administration in the USA and Brexit in the UK. The issue will focus on whether rights established by bilateral and multilateral investment treaties, threatened by recent policy shifts, can be defended in arbitral tribunals.

Abstract submissions of up to 300 words to Dr. Ioannis Glinavos (i.glinavos@westminster.ac.uk) by 01.01.18. Acceptance will be notified by 01.02.18. Full papers in house style due 01.06.18
