

Law, Literature and Humanities (LLHAA) Penny Pether Prize 2019

Rules

1. The purpose of the Prize is to acknowledge and advance work in the field of law, literature and humanities in relation to Australasia.

The Award

2. The Committee will award the prize to the author or authors whose book has, in the judgment of the Committee, made the most significant contribution to the field of Australasian law, literature and humanities since the award of the last prize
3. The winner will be invited to a panel discussion of their work at an appropriate LLHAA conference. Their work will be reviewed and publicised on the Law Literature and Humanities Association of Australasia website/blog.
4. The winner will receive a prize certificate from the Law Literature and Humanities Association of Australasia
5. An additional Penny Pether Prize may be awarded to Early Career Researchers (defined as a person who has been awarded a PhD within the last 5 years) if the Committee deems that this is warranted.

Eligibility

6. Eligible authors will include those who write in the field of Australasian law, literature, and humanities or those whose scholarship in law, literature and humanities emerges from Australasia and the region.
7. To be eligible, the relevant work must bear a publication date of 2017, 2018 or 2019 and not previously been nominated for the Prize.
8. It is anticipated that the winner would attend the LLHAA Conference held at Southern Cross University, Gold Coast campus, in December, 2019.

Administration and Adjudication

9. The prize will be awarded to the author or authors whose book, in the judgment of the Committee, made the most significant contribution to the field of law, literature and humanities in Australasia.
10. Significance is to be based on: (i) contribution to the field of law, literature and the humanities; (ii) quality of scholarship; and (iii) potential for public engagement.
11. Nominations can be made by anyone.
12. The award will be judged by a committee established by the current membership of the management committee of LLHAA ("the Committee").
13. The Committee's decision will be made by a majority vote and will not be open to review.

14. Where a member of the Committee has been nominated for the award, that member will abstain from voting on the award and will not be present when the Committee is considering the nominations.
15. The submission of nominations for the first prize must be made by 1 August 2019. The award will be announced in November 2019.
16. Nominations are to be sent by email to csharp@uow.edu.au.
