

The Gender Pay Gap: From History to Computer Algorithms

1970

-

2020

The Continued Inequality of Women at Work 50 Years after the Equal Pay Act was Introduced

Speakers Include:

*Julie Elliot MP and Dr Frances Ryan,
Guardian Columnist,
Robin Allen QC
Dr Jennifer Aston
Dr Judith Bourne
Prof Jamie Callahan
Mark Gatto
Elisabeth Griffiths
Dr Frances Hamilton
Prof Ann Mumford
Daphne Romney QC
Prof Lucy Vickers
Tracy Walsh, Partner,
Womble Bond Dickinson
and, Dr Wanda Wyporska,
Executive Director of The Equality Trust*

 20 November 2020 - Held Virtually and Hosted by Northumbria University

Call for Papers: The organisers welcome the submission of 15-20 minute papers on any topic within the conference's scope. This includes:

- The intersecting realities of women in society;
- The historical influence of pay inequalities;
- Diversity in the professions;
- Pay inequalities in times of austerity;
- The regulation of work and care relationships;
- Family allowances, taxation and pensions;
- The use of AI.
- Related topics (in consultation with the organisers)

Call for Posters: Students, at any level, may submit a poster on any of the above topics for display during the conference. A prize will be awarded for Best Poster.

If you would like to reserve a place or submit an abstract (of up to 200 words) please email Frances.Hamilton@northumbria.ac.uk or Elisabeth.Griffiths@northumbria.ac.uk.
The deadline for abstracts is 30th September 2020 and for Poster Submission is 30th October 2020.