

Digital writing retreat series: 'Pen to Paper Thursdays'

Date: Thursdays until further notice

Venue: Google Meet 09:30am–12.30pm BST (incl breaks)

Each Pen to Paper Thursday looks like this:

- 09:30am–12.30pm BST (incl breaks).
- 5 X 25-minute writing sessions.
- Google Meet (cameras and mics off until break time).
- A short goal setting exercise (for personal accountability, non-pressured)

This is a weekly event with no fixed end date. The idea with the Pen to Paper Thursday sessions is to carve out a designated space for us all (at all levels) to get "stuff" (of all sorts) done in digital community. There is no obligation for participants to stay for the whole session/ join each session. People are free to use the sessions in a way that works best for them. These sessions are designed for people to develop an accountable writing practice and to "reclaim" time for us to work on the things we'd like to focus on together.

Future participants should email Flick Adams: f.e.adams@ Keele.ac.uk to be added to the weekly Google Invitation.
