

CfP: SAFI Blog Post

We are looking for contributions for the SAFI Blog. We invite contributions from different disciplines which engage with legal theory, legal philosophy, normativity, or reflect on current social and political issues relating to women. We welcome papers, which are philosophically, politically and socially informed as well as contributions reflecting on empirical studies. Please send abstracts (500 words max.) or draft manuscripts (1500-3000 words) to kontakt@safi-network.org. Articles can be written in English or German and will be posted on the SAFI website. The CfP can be found attached.

CfP: The Digital Turn in Socio-Legal Studies (current topic at SLSA 2022)

Deadline: Friday 7th January 2022

Conference webpage and submission of papers: <http://slsa2022.co.uk/site/>

CfO: JFR-Conferences 2022/2023

Do you deal with topics in legal philosophy and are interested in organising a conference? The Junge Forum Rechtsphilosophie (JFR) organises an annual two-day mainly german-speaking conference. We are still looking for a conference team for the autumn conference in 2022 and the spring conference in 2023.

Deadline: You can apply with a proposal for a conference topic and venue (Germany, Austria, Switzerland) until 31 January 2022.

The JFR will assist you with the organisation and implementation of the conference. In addition, Franz Steiner Verlag supports the JFR by publishing the conference proceedings. The papers of both conferences will be published in a joint conference volume as an ARSP supplement.

We look forward to receiving your application! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

The JFR Spokesperson Team: Sabrina Zucca-Soest (zucca@hsu-hh.de); Markus Abraham (markus.abraham@uni-hamburg.de)

CfP: Workshop “Intersectionality. Analysis, Communication, Intervention” 10 - 12 February 2022, University of Bayreuth

On November 2nd 2022, with the generous support of the Hans Böckler Foundation, the University of Bayreuth will inaugurate an interdisciplinary doctoral college of Intersectional Studies in cooperation with the Friedrich Alexander University at Erlangen-Nürnberg and the Phillips University at Marburg. The „Promotionskolleg für Intersektionalitätsstudien“ (PK 053) will be the first European doctoral college to place intersectionality at the centre of its research, in order to explore intersectional social inequalities and their transformation through appropriate interventions. This bi-lingual workshop (German and English) aims to afford the opportunity for the researchers leading this college and potential doctoral applicants to get to know each other. <https://www.gequindi.uni-bayreuth.de/de/aktuelles/2021/CfP-Intersectionality-Workshop/index.html>

Project: scholars in the legal research community

We would like to draw your attention to the survey of scholars in the legal research community. The research network Socio-legal Trajectories in Germany and the UK: Cultures, Actors and Institutions at the MPI for Legal History and Theory of Law (Frankfurt a. M.) is conducting a survey among the legal research community to gather data on disciplinary identities, legal data on disciplinary identities, academic CVs and working conditions, teaching working conditions, teaching, research and publication practices. The survey, which is also being conducted in English, is aimed at researchers who are interested in law, regardless of their career stage. Irrespective of the career stage, the discipline to which they discipline they feel they belong to, or whether they work at a university, a research university, at a research institution or as a private individual. It can be accessed at the following link and takes about 15 minutes of your time. You can also provide more comprehensive answers to open-ended questions: <https://westminster.onlinesurveys.ac.uk/sociolegal-trajectories>

CfA: Associate Junior Fellow, HWK Postdoc Program

The promotion of young researchers is of special interest to the Hanse-Wissenschaftskolleg. For this purpose, the HWK Postdoc Program was created, which aims to support talented early career researchers from all academic disciplines by organizing their own workshop and by giving them the opportunity to participate in HWK events and networks. Membership within the Postdoc Program is limited to a period of three years. Please note that the HWK does not provide stipends or work contracts during that time, but members remain employed by their home institution in the region. Applications are accepted based on the annual call for applications. Applications must be submitted by the end of February. <https://hanse-ias.de/en/the-institute/projects/postdoc-program>
