

Law and Society Review: special issue

In celebration and remembrance of the many contributions to our field of the late Lauren B. Edelman, Law & Society Review invites short essays describing her impact as a scholar, teacher, mentor, leader or friend. A selection of these essays will be published in the September 2023 issue of the Review. Others may be published on the Review's website.

Submission guidelines:

Submissions should be between 2,000 and 4,000 words in length. Authors considering contributing longer, more substantive pieces should write the Review and describe their proposed submission in advance of submitting.

The closing date for submissions is March 31, 2023. To assist in planning, the Editors would be grateful if those intending to submit an essay would notify us as soon as possible, or by March 10, by writing to LSR@lawandsociety.org. Essays may be submitted through the journal's general email address, above.
