

CENTRE FOR SOCIO-LEGAL STUDIES

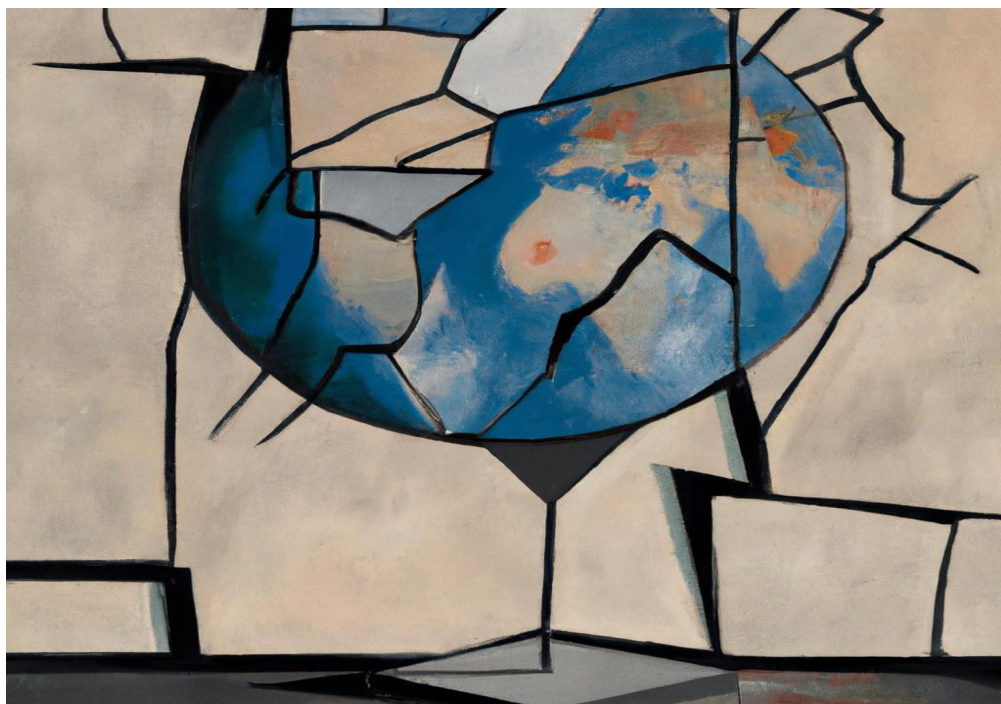

LAW IN SOCIETIES CLUSTER

Annual Socio-Legal LECTURE

29 May 2024
at 5.00 PM

The Buttery
WOLFSON COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

PROFESSOR ANNELISE RILES

EVERYDAY AMBASSADORS: LESSONS FROM SOCIO-LEGAL STUDIES FOR A FRACTURED WORLD

Professor Annelise Riles is Executive Director of the Roberta Buffett Institute for Global Studies at Northwestern University and a Professor of Law and Anthropology. Her scholarship spans a wide range of substantive areas including human rights, managing and accommodating cultural differences, and the regulation of the global financial markets. She has conducted legal and anthropological research in China, Japan, and the Pacific. Her publications span a range of topics, including comparative law, conflict of laws, financial regulation, and central banking.