

White Collar Crime – Challenges and Solutions
5 December 2024
10:00-16:30 (BST)
Hybrid conference (online and in person at Derby University, Derby, England)

Registration form

Dated: 24 Sept 2024

Deadline: 29 November 2024

This international, inter-institutional conference funded by the Society of Legal Scholars and hosted by the University of Derby, in partnership with Cardiff University, University of Portsmouth, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore and London Centre for Commercial and Financial Law, aims to explore the legal and regulatory structures developed to tackle white-collar crime, while looking at the scope for change and reform.

This conference will look at the national, international and regional law, regulation and/or soft law developed to prevent and suppress white collar and corporate crimes.

To encourage worldwide participation of academics, research and PhD students, early researchers, practitioners and law enforcement agencies, and to ensure the event is accessible to all irrespective of means and location, the event will run as a hybrid event (virtually and in person at Derby University, Derby, England), attendance will be free of charge and the conference will be recorded.
