

SeNSS Socio-Legal Conference: Using Quantitative Methods in Socio-Legal Research

18 and 19 May 2020

University of Essex

Room and times TBC

This two day event aims to advance understanding of socio-legal research within SeNSS (South-East Network for Social Sciences) socio-legal pathway institutions (Essex, Kent, UEA, Reading and Sussex). Day one will be a training day on 'using quantitative methods in socio-legal research'. Day two will provide an opportunity to showcase socio-legal research from researchers at SeNSS institutions. The event is open to academics and socio-legal PhD students at all SeNSS institutions but places are limited and registration is required.

This two day event, to be held on 18 and 19 May 2020 at the University of Essex, is specifically targeted at those who adopt a socio-legal approach to their research but who wish to explore and learn more about quantitative methods. Day one will include training from experts on quantitative methods, including topics as follows: an introduction to quantitative methods in socio-legal research, survey design, sampling, introduction to statistical analysis. Day two will provide researchers with an opportunity to present their own work on any socio-legal topic.

How to take part?

Registration for academics: Registration for attendance at the event is essential as places are limited. During registration please note whether you are registering for day one and/or day two and which SeNSS institution you are affiliated with (places are only available to researchers at SeNSS institutions due to the funding for this event): register here

Registration for PhD students: 10 places at this event will be prioritised for any SeNSS funded socio-legal PhD students in this pathway. To apply for one of these places, please submit a short application of no more than 250 words outlining why you wish to attend. Please submit your application to Dr Jaime Lindsey at j.t.lindsey@essex.ac.uk by 1 April 2020.

To present on day two: If you would like to present your research on day two of this event, please submit a short abstract of the presentation up to 250 words, in addition to your name and role at a SeNSS institution by 1 April 2020 to j.t.lindsey@essex.ac.uk. Presenters will be notified shortly after the deadline.

A full programme for the day will be shared with attendees in due course but if you have any questions please contact one of the event organisers (Jaime Lindsey at j.t.lindsey@essex.ac.uk or Lee Marsons at lm17598@essex.ac.uk)
